

COUNTRY VIEW BERHAD
Registration No. 198101012190 (78320-K)
(Incorporated in Malaysia)

BOARD POLICY ON CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT & ETHICS

This Code of Business Conduct & Ethics Policy (“Policy”) has been adopted by the Board of Directors to provide clear guidance to all Employees at all levels of Country View Berhad (“CVB” or “Company”) and its subsidiaries (“CVB Group” or “Group”) to ensure a consistent approach to business practices throughout the CVB Group.

This Policy is not meant to cover all possible situations that may occur. It is designed to provide a reference and guidance. Employees should seek guidance when they are in doubt about the proper course of action in any given situation as it is the ultimate responsibility for each employee to ‘do what is the right things to do’.

Employees for the purpose of this Policy includes all Directors of the Company both Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors.

This Policy is accessible on the Company’s website at http:// www.countryview.com.my

I. Policy Purposes

1. The aim of this Policy is to ensure that all Directors and employees of the Group act in the best interest of the Group in the course of conduct of their affairs, striving at all times to enhance the reputation and performance of the Company.
2. The rights of fellow Board members, employees and all stakeholders must be respected and each person must be accorded equal opportunity without regard to their race, colours, creed, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, lawful alien status, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation or gender identity.
3. Misconduct cannot be excused and all parties are expected to alert management whenever an illegal, dishonest or unethical act is discovered or suspected.
4. CVB conducts its affairs consistent with all applicable laws and regulations where it carries out its business. Business practices, customs and traditions may differ from state to state, country to country, community to community and entity to entity. Where conflicts arises between CVB’s practices and the practices, customs, laws or traditions in any particular matter and if the conflict cannot be resolved, CVB will not proceed with the proposed action giving rise to that conflict.

II. Policy Scope

1. Respect for the Law.
2. Conflicts of Interest.
3. Corporate opportunities.
4. Insider Trading.
5. Confidential Information.
6. Fraud, protection of company assets.
7. Discrimination and harassment.
8. Reporting Violations.
9. Conclusion.

1. Respect For The Law

CVB, its Directors and all employees are bound by all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Compliance with all applicable laws and regulations must be observed and all employees must adhere to all internal company policies, rules and regulations specific to the CVB Group which may go beyond what is requested by law.

2. Conflict of Interest

A Conflict of Interest occurs where personal interest of an employee competes with the interest of the CVB Group.

All employees shall avoid putting themselves in a position of conflict of interest whenever possible.

Where a conflict of interest situation arises, or has occurred or where an employee becomes aware that he faces a situation that may involve or lead to a conflict of interest, the employee shall disclose the situation to his Head of Department or the Head of Human Resources Department to resolve the situation in a fair and transparent manner.

In respect of Senior Management level upwards, the concerns should be brought to the attention of the Executive Directors and in respect of the Board level, it should be brought to the attention of the Board.

All Directors are required to observe and comply with:

- (a) the provisions of the Companies Act 2016 in respect of Sub-Division 3 – Directors Duties and Responsibilities.
- (b) Paragraph 125 to 129 of the Company’s Constitution.
- (c) the provisions of Chapter 10 of the Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“Bursa Malaysia”)’s Main Market Listing Requirements (“MMLR”).

3. Corporate Opportunities

All employees shall not compete with the CVB Group or take personal advantage of business opportunities that arose or discovered during the course of their employment unless CVB expressly waives its interest in pursuing such opportunity.

Where any employees desire to pursue business opportunities that CVB is interested or engaged in, they shall inform their Head of Department or the Head of Human Resources Department who will then seek clearance from the Management or Board where applicable.

In respect of Senior Management level upwards, the issue should be brought to the attention of the Executive Directors and in respect of the Board level, it should be brought to the attention of the Board.

4. Insider Trading

As a general policy, all employees of the Group are discouraged from engaging in speculative trading (as opposed to investing) in the Company’s listed securities, and are reminded to observe the prohibitions imposed on “insiders” in relation to Insider Trading under the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007.

In addition to this, all Directors and key management personnel, identified and designated pursuant to the Board’s Corporate Disclosure Policy (“designated key management personnel”) are required to comply with Bursa Malaysia’s MMLR on Dealings in Listed Securities under Chapter 14.

5. Confidential Information

Confidential Information comprises of any information that is not or has not been released to the public and includes business and trade secrets, business, marketing and service strategies and plans, research information, reports and data, business ideas, products, designs, databases, records, human resource information, and any non-published financial and non-financial data or other data deemed by CVB to be confidential and secret.

Unless required by law or authorised by Management, all employees shall not disclose, divulge or reveal any confidential information, allow or facilitate the disclosure of such confidential information.

All employees are required to use their best effort and endeavour to avoid unintentional disclosure of confidential information including taking precautions and care when storing or transmitting confidential information.

6. Protection and preservation of Company Assets and Financial Records.

All employees shall safeguard and make proper and efficient use of CVB's assets and financial records.

All employees shall use their best efforts and endeavour to protect the Company's assets and financial records from loss, damage, misuse, theft, fraud, embezzlement and destruction. These obligations cover both tangible and intangible assets including trademark, know-how, confidential or proprietary information and information systems.

CVB reserves the right to monitor and inspect how its assets and financial records are being used by its employees including inspection of all correspondence, e-mails, chat messages, data and files kept on Company's network terminals.

7. Discrimination & Harassment

CVB respects the privacy, dignity and personal rights of all employees and is committed to ensuring a workplace environment which is free from any discrimination and harassment of whatsoever nature.

The rights of fellow Board members, employees and all stakeholders must be respected and each person must be accorded equal opportunity without regard to their race, colours, creed, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, lawful alien status, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation or gender identity.

Employees who feel that they have been discriminated against are encouraged to raise their concerns to the Head of Department or to Head of Human Resources Department or the persons designated under Section 8.

8. Reporting Violations

The maintenance of a strong and highly ethical environment with business conduct carried out with utmost integrity must be reinforced by an efficient reporting structure.

If you are aware of or suspect misconduct or violations of any nature outlined in this Policy, you must report it to the appropriate level of Management.

You are to report in priority firstly to your Head of Department, or failing him the Head of Human Resources Department.

If after speaking with the appropriate levels of Management or you feel uncomfortable speaking to them, you may (if you wish) elevate your concerns to the Group General Manager or subsequently to any of the Executive Directors, or failing them to the Senior Independent Non-Executive Directors.

Head of Department	Contact No. / Email
Head, Project Management Mr Radzuan Chua Bin Abdullah	07-5097111 / radzuan@countryview.com.my
Head, Sales Mr Andrew Tan	07-2236799 / andrew@countryview.com.my
Head Human Resources Mr Hong Chee Wen	07-2236799 / hongce@countryview.com.my
Senior Independent Non-Executive Director	cvbsid@countryview.com.my

Any reports that involve the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors, Group General Manager or Chief Financial Officer must be communicated to the Chairman of the Board and/or Chairman of the Audit and Risk Management Committee.

Your report/calls/emails will be dealt with the strictest confidentiality and will only be disclosed and shared in order to address the matters appropriately. Regardless, the Board of Directors wishes to assure you that the Board will shield and protect you from any retaliation by any other employees of the CVB Group.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with the Board's Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy.

9. Conclusion

- (a) This Policy applies to all Employees of the CVB Group (including all Directors).
- (b) Any reports made will be thoroughly investigated and if such violation proven, appropriate disciplinary actions will be taken by the Management with the sanction of the Executive Director's or the Board depending on the nature and level of the Breach including dismissal and termination.

This Policy was adopted on 16 March 2017.

This Policy was last reviewed and revised on 26 July 2022.